Featured Speakers

OPENING KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Can't We All Just Get Along?

The workplace is filled with significant generational differences & challenges between Traditionalists, Boomers, Generation X-ers and Millennials. While it can make for some serious comedy, it also leads to plenty of issues with which we can all identify. Each generation learns, values, thinks and develops differently. Jason Young is a gifted speaker who brings his years of customer service experience from industry leader Southwest Airlines to the audience and explains how to deal with the various generations in a way that helps create and sustain a high performance experience.

Moving Target: Legislative Update & Why Compliance Matters

Jessica will bring a Washington insider's perspective on the most recent legislative and regulatory changes and how they impact the industry. She will also share important tips on how to protect yourself and your business when it comes to compliance!

Jessica Waltman

Principal, Forward Health Consulting

Medical Marijuana: Coming to a Pharmacy Near You?

Mike will break down current policies and considerations around medical marijuana and how it may impact the health insurance market in the future.

Michael Bertaut, MBA, CHC, PAHM

Healthcare Economist, Blue Cross Blue Shield of Louisiana

Balance Billing: A Regulatory Perspective

You have surgery at an in-network hospital, but then you get a huge bill because the anesthesiologist was not in your network. This is increasingly becoming an issue receiving a lot of legislative attention on both the federal and state level. Our speaker will share what the Department of Insurance is doing to and potential legislative proposals that will be heard this session in an effort to increase consumer protections.

KEYNOTE & LUNCHEON SPEAKER

High Fives & the Power of YES!

The author of more than 23 books, Lee will share his high energy and experience to turn customers into raving fans—even when things may go wrong. He'll share some tips and tricks from big companies who set the Gold Standard for great service!
